

Section 153.39 | Approval of plans for children's home.

Ohio Revised Code / Title 1 State Government / Chapter 153 Public Improvements

Effective: April 9, 2025 Latest Legislation: House Bill 497 - 135th General Assembly

If the plans, drawings, representations, bills of material, specifications of work, and estimates relate to the building of a children's home, they shall be submitted to the board of county commissioners and three citizens of the county, to be appointed by a resident judge of the court of common pleas, or a judge residing in the same subdivision of the judicial district. If approved by a majority of them, a copy thereof shall be deposited in the office of the board of county commissioners and kept by the board for the inspection of interested parties. Before such plans are adopted, they shall be submitted to the department of children and youth for suggestions and criticism. The boards of counties composing a district for the purpose of establishing a district children's home, in letting contracts for the necessary buildings or the repair or alteration thereof, shall be governed by the law relating to letting contracts for erecting, repairing, or altering other public buildings.

Section 153.36 | Approval of plans for courthouse or jail.

Ohio Revised Code / Title 1 State Government / Chapter 153 Public Improvements

Effective: April 9, 2025 Latest Legislation: House Bill 497 - 135th General Assembly

(A) If the plans, drawings, representations, bills of material, and specifications of work, and estimates of the cost thereof in detail and in the aggregate, required in sections 153.31 to 153.35, inclusive, of the Revised Code, relate to the building of a courthouse or jail, or an addition to or alteration, repair, or improvement thereof, they shall be submitted to the board of county commissioners. If the estimated total cost of the project is greater than seventy-five thousand dollars, the materials also shall be submitted to the clerk of the court of common pleas, the sheriff, and probate judge, and one person to be appointed by the judge of the court of common pleas, for their approval. A project with an estimated total cost greater than seventy-five thousand dollars shall not commence unless approved by a majority of them. A copy of the materials shall be kept in the office of the board of county commissioners.

(B) A board of county commissioners may independently approve a project described in division (A) of this section that has an estimated total cost of seventy-five thousand dollars or less. The board may seek the advice of the clerk of the court of common pleas, the sheriff, and a probate judge, on the project.
